

HYUN HEE DEBORAH PARK

deborahparkmusic@gmail.com

Deborah is an internationally-experienced virtuoso pianist, conductor, composer, and educator. She began to play piano at the age of six and has performed in many formal concerts in Korea, Germany, Canada, and US. She is working as the Music Director/Organist at Fairview United Church and presently working on her Master of Sacred Music at the University of Toronto.

Deborah Park completed the Licentiate Diploma and the ARCT Diploma in Piano Performance from The Royal Conservatory of Music Toronto. These are the two highest diplomas in the examination system.

Deborah has won numerous international Competitions: the American Protégé International Competition of Romantic Music 2014, the Bradshaw & Buono International Piano Competition 2016, the Golden Classical Music Award Competition 2016, and the Concert Artists International Virtuoso Competition 2017. These awards resulted in Deborah being asked to perform at Carnegie Hall in New York on four different occasions. As a composer, she has been writing global music, hymns, and solo piano works that are inspired by her life experiences in many countries. Her musical portfolio includes explorations of spirit, theology, philosophy, nature, and human relationships.

She released her classical piano CD Blessed in 2014 and her original works CD I Pray as a composer-pianist in 2015. They are available to download on Spotify, Amazon, and iTunes.
